ramble time

a zine made by wilbutt

hi! welcome to the first ever ramble time!!
this zine will have an array of topics, and for this issue it will be about...
Weird Al Yankovic!!!!

(weird al, Like A Surgeon mv)

Weird Al is definitely an inspiration to me. He's seriously such a nice guy (i met him at a comic con once!). His music is catchy, funny and honestly very creative.

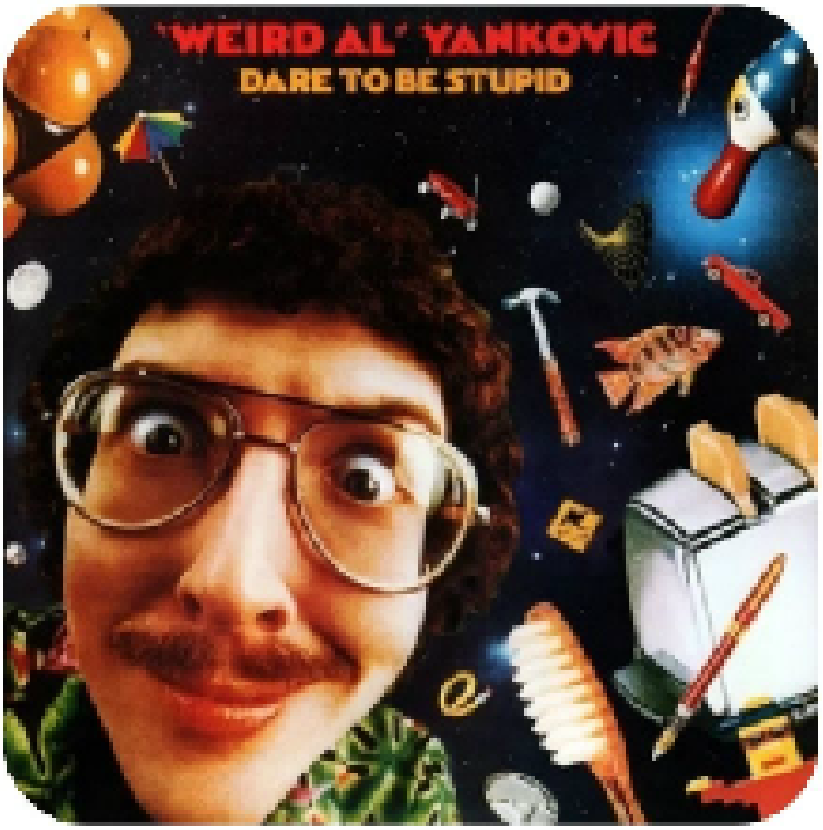
Who's this crazy old guy?!?!

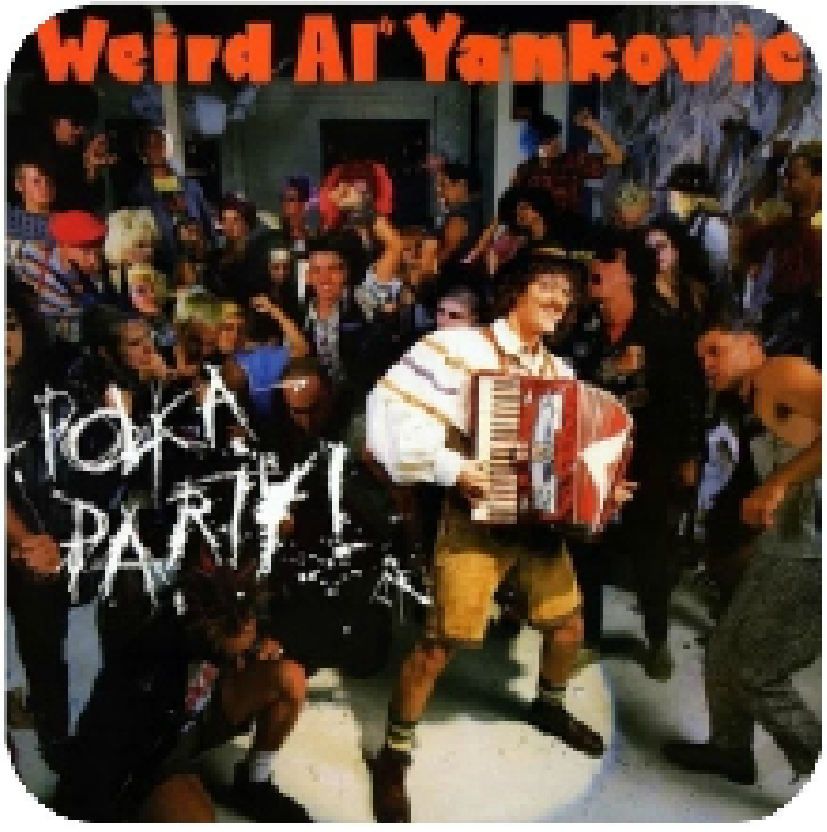
"Weird Al" Yankovic is a musician, mainly known for his parodies of popular songs in any genre of music. He also creates polka medleys of songs, and voice acts in various medias, usually as himself or characters themed after himself. (Check MLP: FiM season 4 ep. 12!)

Songs of his!

(my personal favorites)

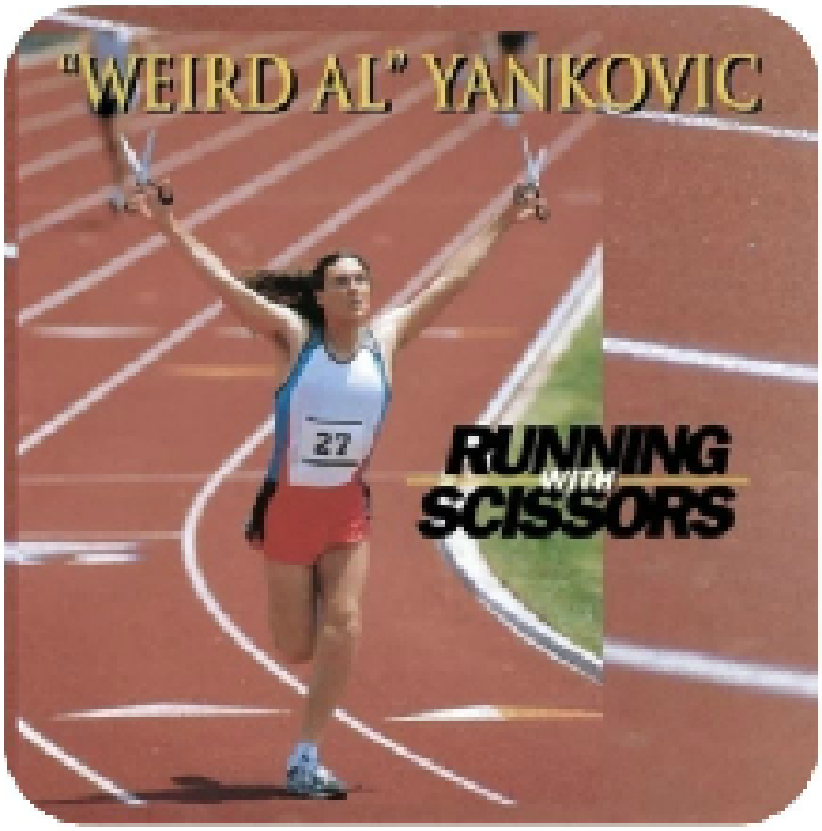
Dare to Be Stupid, from Dare To Be Stupid (1985)





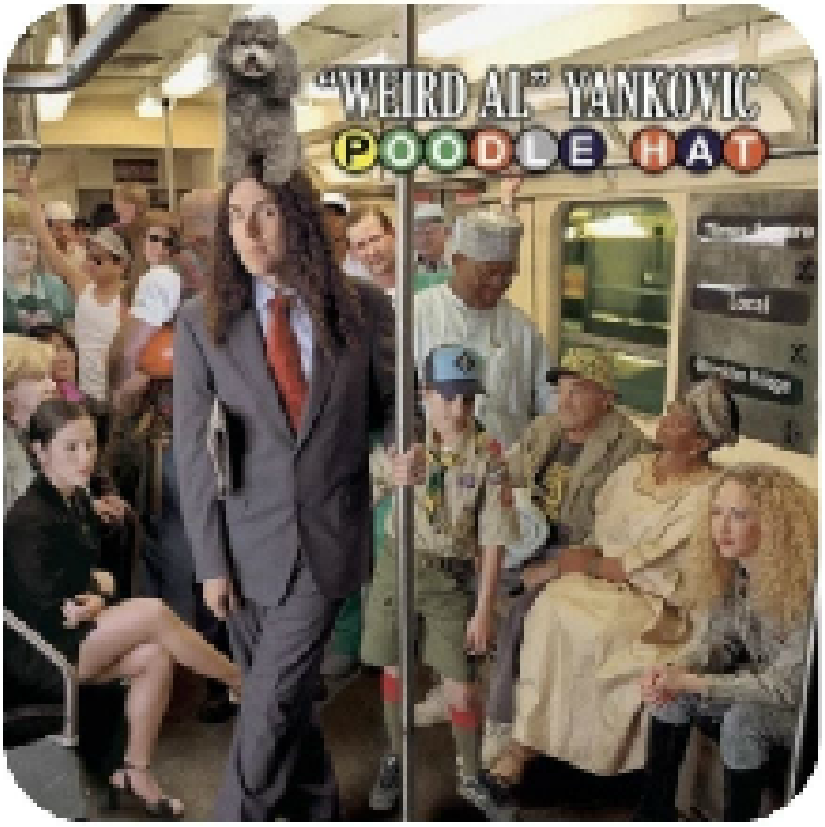
Christmas at Ground Zero from Polka Party (1986)

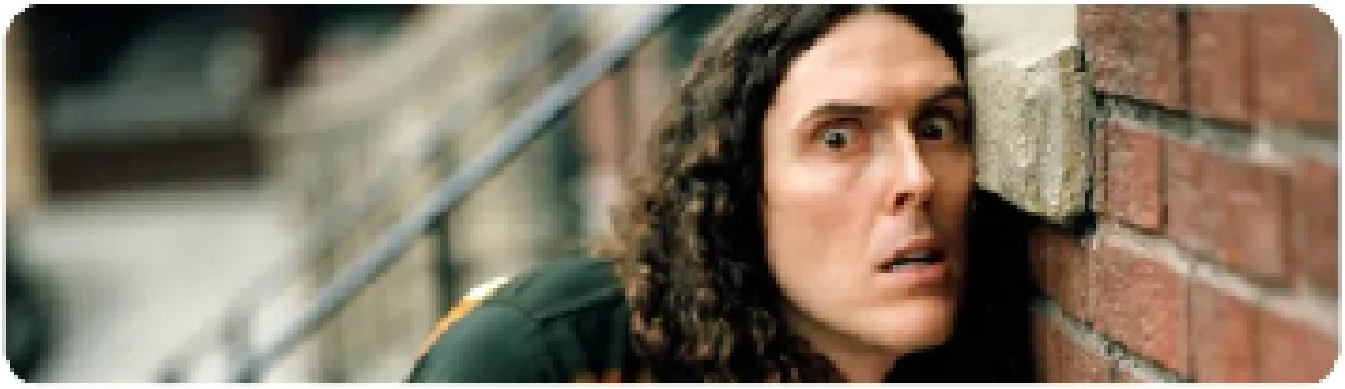
Everything You Know Is Wrong from Bad Hair Day (1996)



Albuquerque from Running With Scissors (1999)

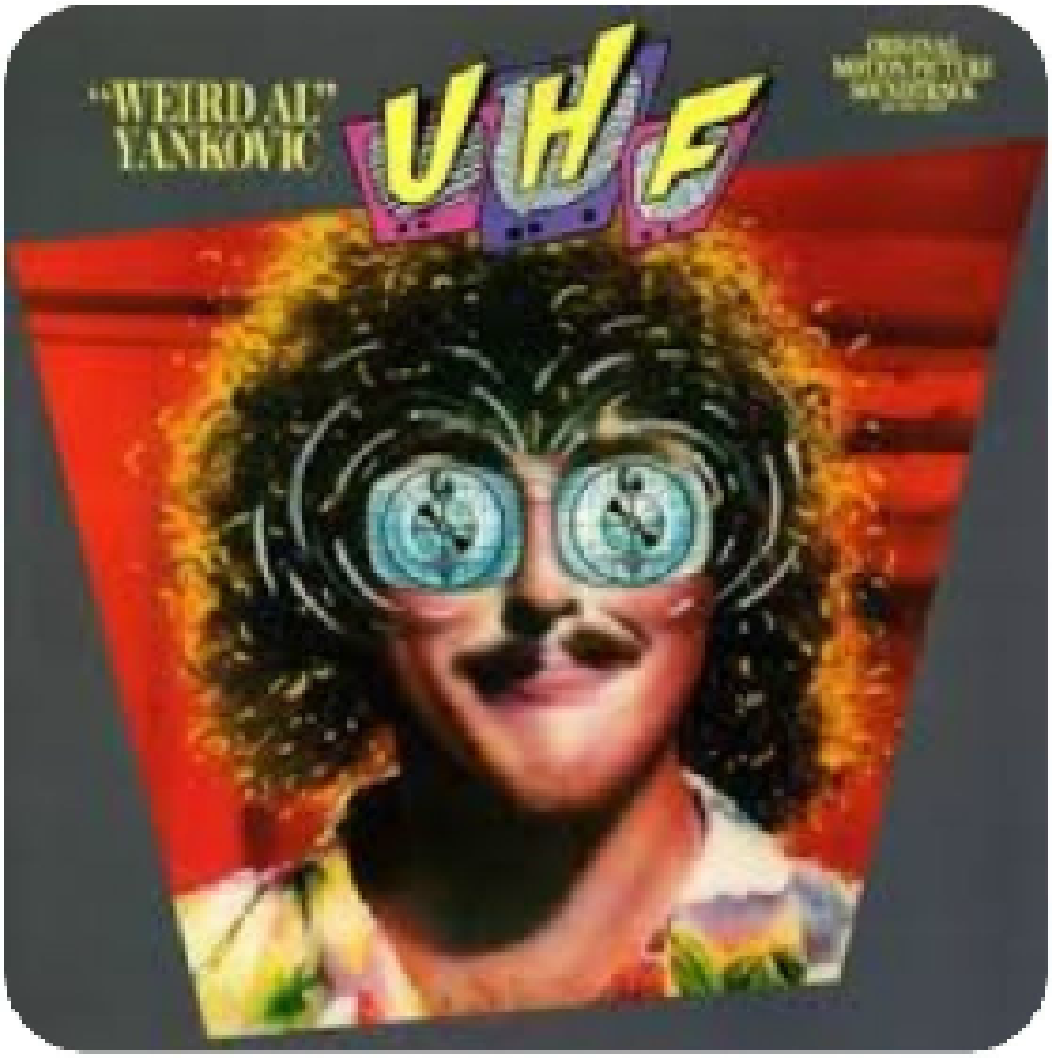
Hardware Store from Poodle Hat (2003)





Canadian Idiot from Straight Outta Lynwood (2006)

Okay, what else??



Weird Al made and starred in a movie called UHF! He also has an album with the same title ! The movie is about his character, named George Newman, who gains ownership of a television station and has to save it after it gets threatened by a rival station. It's a great watch and also features David Bowe, Fran Drescher , Michael Richards and more!!
